

New Zealand Fire Brigades' Institute

Scholarship Application Endorsement Form

Background

The purpose of the New Zealand Fire Brigades' Institute Scholarship is to fulfil the aims of the Institute, to advance knowledge and understanding, be of benefit to all those working in fire and emergency and for the personal growth and development of the recipient.

You have been asked to endorse an application. We would ask that you discuss the application and the goals and objectives of the applicant in wanting to pursue this course of study and research. Once you are satisfied you have sufficient understanding, complete the following endorsement so that it can be included with the application.

Form completion:

Please answer all questions by typing in the spaces provided and returning to the NZFBI Secretary prior to the submission deadline. Handwritten applications will not be accepted.

Applicant:

Applicant's name:
-------------------	--

Your details:

Your first and middle names:
Last name:
Your position:
Brigade / Fire Force:
Mobile #:
Email address:
Your relationship to the applicant

Supporting statement:

Describe what you see as the potential benefits to the personal development of the applicant and to those who work in fire and emergency through this proposed course of study in terms of the gain in knowledge and the development of practice.

Why do you believe the applicant is well suited to undertake this course of study and research?

Is there anything else the Selection Committee needs to consider?

Any questions?

If you have any questions, please contact the Secretary: info.nzfbi@gmail.com